Previous to the August election, we nrged as an objection to the Know-Nothing party, the bank agents are good judges of human nature face that it made an effort to secure every office in the gift of the people - political, executive, as well as judicial; and the secret means used to bring about this end, compelled us to fear, and so ssy, that they wished to have the power to shield themselves from punishment, in case they had to resort to violence to accomplish their purposes. This fear has, alas! for the good name of our city! a prophecy more entirely falfilled. Crimes most unheard of and revolting have gone unpunished. Crimes of the most daring and inhuman character have been concected in their lodges, committed by their hirelings and menials, justified by their organ, and then winked at by those in anthority, whose business it was to ferret out the perpetrators, and bring them up for trial. This, we con tended, would be a result of a secret, oath-bound midnight party, and this will be again the case, if the people do not rise in their might, and rebuke the fieudish spirit which controls and governs but to rain and bloodshed.

The history of the world is toe plainly written and too well understood, for any man of pure motives to look on nne meerned, when a secret political party has existence in this country. The instincts of our people, as well as the institutions under which we live, rebel against anch a party. And those who have looked on unconcerned, hoping that all things would turn out for the best, have been drawn from their apathy by the atrocities of the past, and the fears for the future. they have hoped against hope. The love of place, the stock as a gift. and the hope of getting office, have kept the party Now what would have been the reply of any her of the order is sworn to vote. How this nomi- tell the truth? nating is done no one knows who is not a delegate. Even their oath-hound members are not admitted other day in daylight, they allowed no outsiders, tance to their meeting. What sort of juggling, ried on, no one can tell. The right of voting, the elective franchise, the right of private judgment, was intructed by the members of the order is left now for the members but slavishly to subno other choice. The order is given, and they must march right up to the work, whether they like it or not. Many may have had their best friends radely and wantonly laid upon the shelfperhaps by trickery, may be by bribery, and yet no one knows, outside of the council, how it was done. Truly this is a fast age. This concentrated secresy is rather ahead of anything we have heard of before. They are now not only afrail of outother. Is not this a beautiful, a commendable openuess of organization! Is not this throwing of the secreey of the order with a vengeance?

We have seen, for a long time, that secresy wa the only salvation of the party. The light of day, and a public scruting of the actions of the order in council assembed, would snow too plainly its rottonness and corruption. This must all be kep from public view. But really their trickery and correspion must be worse even than we could have conceived, when they have to hide from one another, when they have to shut out from their meeting members who have sworn the most solemn oaths before high Heaven that they would never, under any circumstances, reveal the secrets

We call upon our eitizens to watch carefully the dologs of this party. New phases of its organization are being developed. What is in the future for our city no one can foresee. I was the official friend of Colonel Lane in that affair, and I aloue am responsible for his action in the adjustment of the difficulty. It is not neceseary, nor would it be proper to publish the details f either the difficulty or its settlement. Suffice it to say, that a mntual, but not efficial friend of the parties, made a statement to the friend of Col. Dument and myself, after arriving upon the ground,

That investigation brought to light the fact, that Col. Lane's challenge had becugiven in consequence of an entire verbal mlannderstanding by him of Col. Damont's language. Upon this dis covery, the affsir was adjusted by the official friend of Col. Dumout and myself, and neither Col. Lane nor Colonel Dumont are responsible for the terms

A WELL MERITED COMPLIMENT. - The Demo crats of Louisville have presented the talented and fearless editor of the Louisville Democrat with a splendid service of plate, as a testimonial of their regard, respect, and admiration. To use the language of the Kentucky Statesman, "We rejoice to ee so strong a manifestation of approval by the Louisville Democracy of the bold, honest conrect the Democrat." Mr. Harney is in every way worthy of the honor .- Wash. Union.

[For the Louisville Democrat.] To the People.

As my name has been mentioued as if I were sandidate for office at your hands, I wish to say I un not a candidate for any office. And I should say no more but for cortain misrepresentations, and aarsh words in newspapers for some days back. It cems to me proper now to say something for the ake of trnth.

It is not true that I wrote or spoke in any wnaking overtures to the Know-Nothing party. ought no nomination from any party, but I de-ired the centrary, and so expressed it often What I replied in a short note to the Mayor and cortain other friends, was only to enable them to s frank statement of what I had said verbally to many persons when speken to; but I had made it a rule to say nothing to any one that I supposed was a member of the American order, about their principles, or my own, unless he introduced the subject himself. I neither said or wrote any thing new or different from what my open actions and words had shown—my votes are of record. It is not true that I said, or wrote, that I would join the order; but I continually said I could not. It is coungh for me to say that I could not, because ] was a judge, and did not think, standing in tha position, it would be proper. Perhaps this is a fas-idious delicacy, impracticable, and merely at the xpense of him who feels it-tor the world is very course just now. It is not true, as has been pub-ushed, that I said I would join the order after the lection if I was not elected.

I am an Amorican; I was a momber of the American party many years ago, and I have said so when spoken to, and I said so when written to. But I have no intelerance of action or of feeling toward any one ou account of his religious sentinents, or any other sent:ments, that are not in-ouslstent with patriotism and allegiance to the onstitution. And here I ought to say (as I do ot mean to insinuate that others are intolerant) that ac ording to the platform made by the Ameri can party at Philadolphia, as I understand it, a Catholic could be a member of that party as well as a Protestant, unless he held to the temporal supremacy of a foreign potentate. I have never known any of our native Catholies that I though held to anoh a preposterous and un-America

I ardently desire the election of Mr. Fillmore ecause among other reforms sought by the Ameri-an party, his election would go far towards ban-shing the discussion and agitation of the slavery restion, as a ruling question on both sides it ongress—and in the walle land. Unless this bone, I must have anxious fears for the Union. Holding these views, I have expressed some of them when addressed by my neighbors. OF THE UNITED STATES An advertisement of Mr. UDOLPHO WOLFE, letely published, as I suppose, for the protection of his Schle my observation; and, being engaged in the manufac-ture of Schiedam Schuat ps, were I to let it pass without notice. I might be considered among those he denominated nates "Pirates and Venders of Poison." But the lu mense patronage end success that has attended the sale of the article manufactured by me, and the opinion competent judges as to its quelities as e beverage and Its medicinal virtues, precludes the possibility of the ideathat I am included among those he designs to lm pugn. No doubt he feels aggrieved at the depreciation of the sale of his Schnapps, which la manifest to all since min a has been brought into competition with his. Not only have I succeeded lu competing with him quality, but the coustant and increasing demand fo my article will soon satisfy him that his eantion to the itlseus of the "Southern and Western States" wi aveil him nothing as far as I am concerned. character of my Schie lam Schnapps la too well established in those States to be injured by any such invid ous publication. The motive of his advertisement obvious to every oue, and feeling well satisfied that al such missiles thrown at me by him will fall harmlese my feet, I will here, for the satisfaction of the public publish my Copy Right, entered in the Southern Di

SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF NEW YORK, SS.
Be it remembered, That on the twenty-eighth day of December, Anno Domini 1854, Barnard L. Simpson, of the said instrict, hath deposited in the office the title of a print or ishel, the title of whlon's in the words following, to-wit: "Barnard L. Simpson's Aromatic Scheidan Tuniper Schnapps, a superior Tonic Antl-Dyspeptic Invigorating Cordial," the right whereof he claims a suthor and proprietor, in conformity with an act of Jongress, entitled "An act to amend the several acts. Clerk of the Southern District of New York.

The word Schiedam Schnapps is derived from a town The word Schiedam Schnapps is derived from a town n Holland, called "Shiedom," which is celebrated as lace of extensive juulper pleutations and numerou istilleries of the above article, which has been known as Schnepps" for centuries. Does it not appear, now, poor and deceitful for U. W o attempt to make a wrong and un'rue impression or he public by asserting that the name "Schiedam schnapps" belongs exclusively to his article, and that all others are count-rielts and impositions?

U. W. has no monopoly, and no more right for the ole importation of Schiedem Schuapps than anybody ise, and he may rest assured that I shall be the last t bmit to his unjustifiable pretensions. The great and increasing demand for my Gennin hiedam Schnappa la Louisville, eudthronghout Ke

B. L. SIMPSON. NEW YORK, March 10, 1858. mr32 d wtie13 Caution to Western Merchants! WOLFE'S

Schiedam Aromatic Schnapps This celebrated medicinel beverage is manufacture at the factory of the undersigned, at Schiedam, Ho iand. He is the sole importer as well as the exclusive manufacturer of the article; and no preparetion bear ing the name of "Schnapps," that is not procure agents in other cities, is genuine and reliable. It is made from barley of the finest quality, select with great care from the products of the most celebra ed grain-growing districts; is flavored with the essen of the aromatic Juniper Berry of Italy, and is rectified by a peculiar process, which expels from the spirit very acrid particle. As a means of preventing and correcting the disa recable and often dangerous effects produced upon he stomach and bowels by a change of water-a visita tion to which travelers, new settlers, and all unacci mated; persons in the west, the south, end southwes peculiarly liable—the Schiedam Aromatic Schuap vill be found absolutely infallible; while, in cases ropsy, gravel, obstruction of the kidneys, diseases he bladder, dyspepsia, and general debility, it is r ommended most emphatically by the most distin nished members of the medical profession. It is put up in quart and plut bottles, in cases of on

J. A. RHODES, RSQ.—Dear Sir: As I took your medi-tine to sell on consignment, "uo cure no pay," I take leasure in stating its effects as reported to me by three rothers who live in this place, and their testimony is a air specimen of all I have received:

W. S. Conkin told me—"I had taken nine bettles of Christie's Ague Balsam, and continually run down while naing it, until my lungs and liver were congested to that degree that blood discharged from my mouth and bowels, so that all thought it impossible for me to too through another chill! The doctors, too. did all they could for me, but thought I must dis. Nothing CURE, which at once relieved me of the distress and els, and produced a permanent sure in a short time." II. M. Conklin says: "I had been taking medicine of as good a doctor as we have in our county, and takes cond result, from 25th August to 17th December. But seeing how ulcely it hoperated on my brother. I got a bottle of Rhodes' jeves and Agus Curs, which ef-

8. M. Conkilu was nothere, but both the other brothers vay his case was the same as H M.'s. I sold the medidue to both the same day, and the cure was any from the same small quantity, and I might sale Yours with respect, A. HUNTINGTON. The above speaks for itself. Good proof as it is, it is of no better tenor than the vast number of like certificates I have already published, and the still greater mount that is continually pouring in to me. Oue thing more. Last year I had occasion to CAU-ION THE PUBLIC in these words: culars, substituted the name of their nestrum for my medicine, and then, with brazen impudence, and their pamphlet with the exclumation, 'Let the proprietor of any other medicine say as much if he dares,'" fe.

Now I take pleasure in saying that the CAUTION re rred to the same "Dr. Christie's Ague Balsam" that is entioned in the above certificate. There are several other in lustrious people who are applying to their poisonous trash all that I publish bout my Fever and Aque Cure, or Antidote to Maiaria, respt the certificates of cures, and the certificate of the celebrated chemist, Dr. James R. Chilton, of New York in favor of its perfectly manners characters, which is attached to every bottle. These will always serve to distinguish my medicine from ladations.

REMARKS—Money—The money market has been very active since our last review; the abundant supply, however, has enabled all parties (who were fortunate enough to have it in their power to offer "the right kind of paper") to meet their engagements. A more just and liberal policy on the part of the banks in discounting the paper of manufacturers, especially of small means, would produce good results, by increasing the prospecty of those already established, and by inducing others to commence the manufacture of articles of general consumption, which are now procured by our merchants in their cliies. This subject is one of vital importance to the growth and commercial prospecity of our city, and we hope it will receive the ecclishened consideration of all bank officers who regulate the extent of "bank accommodations." We shall refer to this matter again, and show by a specific statement of facts, which will carry conviction to every mind, that a reform is needed in the treatment of manufacturers' paper.

Exchange still continues in good demand, with a slight advance in buying rates on Boston and Baltimore, as with be noticed in our table.

Giv. Stophens says Wool neglected and refused to send a force for the retief of myself and party, when we were known to be in imminent danger, and believed by those who are the best capable of julging, to be coming on to certain death, and this when he had at his command an efficient force of regular troops. He has refused to sanction the argument made between General Mason and Major and believed to be sent to my assistance of the work jor Gaines for the troops to be sent to my assistance and ordered them disbanded. It was reserved for the Oregon volunteers to rescue us. There has been a breach of faith somewhere. I ask for an investigation into the whole matter. After a debate its consideration was postponed. After a general the constituent was postponed.

Mr. Case spoke at length on the question vindicating the decirine of self-government, or as has been called derisively squatter severeignty. He said his term originated relative to the first seltlers of California, who, having no government, made one for themselves, and asked the general government to recognize it, but they were deriively called squatter sovereignty, as if the people sidered as nothing more than land, rocks and trees.
In connection with this subject he quoted an apologue of Dr. Franklin, who discussed property qualifications this way. If there is property qualifications of fifty dollars, a man who owns a jackness worth that sum has a right to vete to day, but a property if the increased dies, and the usual ass worth that sum has a right to vote to day, but to morrow, if the jackass dies, and the man a right to vote, then in whom does the right to vote lie, in the man or the jackass?

This question Mr. Cass was not casuist enough to determine. He proceeded to discuss the question of the power of Congress over the territories, saying if Congress has decisive p wer enough to make a government for the territories from the ownership of the land, just as soon as the government adds that land there would be no longer any

Mr. Clingman seked for its postponement to-day as he was certain he understood the information called for, relative to the Panama outrages, would be sent in to-morrow or next day.

Mr. Campbeil had no objection, if he could offer a substitute, requesting the President to negotiate through the department of that State, with Great Britoin and Russla for the acquisition of Canada and all the other British and Itansian Possesions on this Continent, and with Spain for the acquisition of Cuba, consistent with her honor and the tion of Cuba, consistent with her honor and the consent of the people thereof: provided that il the said possessions shall be annexed, there shall be neither slavery or involuntary servitude excspt for crime.

Mr. Fautener asked Mr. Clingman what objections he could have to his resolution being reported to the Committee on Foreign Affairs. Mr. Clingman replied none. That Committee has a subject under consideration, but he donbted whether they would be able to report for the next two months, owing to the other committees havtwo menths, owing to the other committees having precedence. Some action of the kind he proposed, is necessary. If he could have the ear of the Honse for ten minutes he could satisfy them by the reference to the treaty in his hand that we are bound to give the President some such anthority as his resolution proposes.

The question on suspending the rules to enable Mr. Chargman to introduce his resolution was negatived, yeas 53—nays 46.

Mammoth Cave, Kentucky. THE HOTFL AT THE CAVE, which is espaide of accommodating 400 persons, is now undergoing a thorough repair, and being refitted and turnished in a nest and comfortable style. Persons desirous of visiting the Cave during the approaching season will find the accommodations equal to those of the first-cases hotels. The services of the old guides, Stephen, Mat, Nicholar &c, have all been secund.

The Cave, will the kept in connection with the celebrated stand, the "Bell Tavern," situated about 49 miles from Lui ville, and about the same distance from Nashvile, on the Louisville and Nashvile road, which can be reached by a "ally line o stages roan by Carter & Thomas to "Bell's," 'miles from the Cave, where conv.y-ences will at all times be in readiness to cenvey visitory of the taxe.

The dave is shutted at a healthy and romantic spot on the leaks of Green river, and trasteen explored in a direct route over 9 miles, and through the various avenues more than 150 miles.

It would be any ossable to describe the granders and beauty of the Cave. > Dr. Price's Chronic Specific. HIS REMEDY CERTAINLY

h 15 KEMEDY CERTAINLY has more efficacy than any remedy ever offered to the afflicted. This cannot be successfully controverted, as the evidence in its favor is so strong and weighty. We will not give a long array of certificates.
We will give but few, and those shall be from gentle men high in standing and videly known, such as Hon.
J. B. Underwood, Kev. Wm. L. Breckindige, Judge
Asher Graham, Judge Wm. V. Loving, Dr. Haggard, and Dr. L. C. Porter.
Dr. PRICE'S CHRONIC SPECIFIC is the best Alterative, Tonic, and Blood Purifier ever compounded.
It is adapted to cure Scrofala, White Swelling, Incipient Consumption, Female Diseases, Dyspepsia, Gencrail Debility. Rheumatism, Secondary Spyhills, Sore Eyes, and all Outaneous Diseases, &c.

From Hon. J. R. Underwood.

A servant girl in my famlly was afflicted with Scrofulous Sore Eyea. Notwith-tandling she had medical treatment, upon the whole she grew worse, urtil I feared that she would become totally hind. She was placed under Dr. Erice's treatment, and to all appearances a radical cure was performed. For several months past she has seemed to me, as she does now, to be perfectly free from any defect or acreness of the eyes, and to be in perfect health otherwise.

Louisville, Ky. WM. L. BRECKINBIDGE.

(The American Candidate for Governer).

I have seen several of Dr. Price's patients; amongs others, Mr. B. H. Dickerson, of Monroe co. At the time I saw him he was disrased from head to foot. The left side of his face and neck was greatly enlarged and awollen. All of the left side of his neck, breast, and right shoulder were a mass of filty disrases and run ning sores. As he would work his arms, the air would escape from deep ulcers under his collar hones, causing filthy matter and blood to bubble ont. The nse of the probe had proved that some of these ulcers extended into the hollow of the body. Mr. Dickerson put himself under Dr. Price's treatment, who administered his Chronic specific, and, strangeto tell, a permanent care was effected.

tasted and approved, both as a freight and passenger route. This road is located in a romantic country, is solidily constructed, fully equipped, and carefully managed, and is thus rendered an attractive as well as as fel line for travelers. The late completion of the Central Ohio Boad, from Columbus to the Ohio river, near Wheeling, adds greatly to the importance of this route, offering, as it does, the most thorough Ballioad connection with the entire West.
